

Places to Dine in the New Haven Area

Each of the places listed also has private or semi-private dining areas, ideal for a class dinner.

New Haven

116 Crown, 116 Crown Street, 203-777-3116, has creative cocktails and small plates such as cheese and charcuterie selections, shorts ribs, and salads that can easily make a meal. Fun for sharing. Owned by current Foote parents

Bar, 254 Crown Street, 203-495-8924, for a great vibe, micro-brewed beers, and fantastic brick-oven pizza.

Caseus, 93 Whitney Avenue, 203-624-3373, lively bistro setting offering everything cheese, and much more.

Heirloom, 1157 Chapel Street, 203-503-3900, in The Study Hotel. Contemporary continental cuisine, described as "traditional New England fare renewed with the taste of NYC's hip restaurant scene."

Olea, 39 High Street, 203-780-8925, an innovative Spanish and Mediterranean restaurant with excellent service and flavorful authentic dishes.

Miya's Sushi, 68 Howe Street, 203-777-9760, The only sustainable seafood restaurant on the East Coast, Miya's offers flavors and more flavors, presided over by owner / chef Bun S. Lai, Foote '84.

Pacifico, 220 College Street, 203-772-4002, Extraordinary Latin-influenced cuisine, serving traditional Tapas, and signature dishes like seafood paella. Fabulous mojitos!

L'Orcio, 806 State Street, 203-777-6670, offers contemporary Italian cuisine, including house-made specialty pastas. Chef and owners are current Foote parents.

Union League Café, 1032 Chapel Street, 203-562-4299, serves exquisite French fare in a very elegant but casual surroundings. Great place to get pampered!

Zinc, 964 Chapel Street, 203-624-0507, offers sophisticated New American cuisine and a sleek décor. Emphasis is on locally grown foods.

Hamden/North Haven

Ibiza Tapas, 1832 Dixwell Avenue, 203-909-6512, Traditional and modern tapas options with an inexpensive wine list.

Mikro Beer Bar, 3000 Whitney Avenue, 203-553-7676, Fun, hip gastropub with a great selection of craft beers and a nice wine list, along with a shareable, creative menu that highlights local and seasonal items.

Kala Bistro, 1995 Whitney Avenue, 203-889-2275, From the team behind New Haven's Olea comes this North Haven bistro highlighting European, Asian, American and Latin flavors.